Personal Blurb: I have lived in Castleton for 17 years and wanted to become a school governor to give something back to this wonderful community. I am a regular churchgoer and lay vice chair of the Parochial Church Council. I am now retired, but used to work as a commissioning manager with Middlesbrough Council, commissioning a range of services including homelessness, Domestic Abuse, Public Health, Carers services and some education support services. Now I am retired as well as looking after my garden and growing vegetables I enjoy travelling and walking and am also a volunteer signalman on the North Yorkshire Moors Railway. I have two adult daughters and three grandchildren who keep me on my toes!
