Personal Blurb: I have lived in Danby since 1988 with my husband Barry. Our two sons attended Danby School but now live in West Yorkshire. We have a very lively springer spaniel, called Jake, who keeps us fit - we can often be seen walking on the Moors in all weathers; dogs don't mind!. I am the Deacon for the Moorlands Benefice which means that I am involved in the life of our five churches and communities: Danby, Castleton, Commondale, Westerdale and Moorsholm. I enjoy singing in the 'Singing for Pleasure' choir and helping with the 'Heather Hopper' (community bus) trips. I love to spend time in our schools, particularly taking Collective Worship.
